For sale is a unique property in an excellent location in Rovinj, representing an exceptional investment opportunity due to its size, purpose, and diverse possibilities for use.

The property consists of land with a total area of 7,210 m², part of which is located in a mixed-use zone, part in an agricultural zone, while another part belongs to a recreational zone.

The construction area covers approximately 1,450 m², where, according to spatial planning documentation, it is possible to build up to nine residential units, making the property ideal for the development of a residential or tourist project.

On the property, there is a traditional Istrian house with multiple residential units and an auxiliary building, with a total area of 448 m². The property is operational and regularly used, and the condition of the buildings is very good. The house is connected to the water supply and electricity networks.

The agricultural part of the land features an olive grove and two additional buildings – a smaller house and an agricultural building that was once used for keeping animals.

Part of the land is currently ...
